

Royce Pearson

Mr. Pearson is a lifetime resident of Artesia New Mexico. He graduated high school in 1980. After graduating, he attended Texas Tech University where you obtained a BBA in Business Management. After 33 years of employment, Mr. Pearson retired from Holly Frontier Cooperation. He has served 10 years on Artesia City Council and 4 years on the Eddy County Commission. Currently, Mr. Pearson is working for the Artesia Public School District as an activity bus driver. Throughout the years, he has been an active member in numerous civic and fraternal organizations. His level of interest include helping people, specifically seniors and children. Mr. Pearson is married with four children, six grandchildren, and six fur babies.