Taking Action. Changing Lives.

Foster Grandparent Program is seeking volunteers! If you would like to tutor/mentor children and supplement your income join our team of volunteers for the next school year.

The Foster Grandparent Program is currently seeking volunteers. Interested individuals must be 55 years of age or older, must meet federal income guide-lines and pass a background check. Foster Grandparents assist children in Elementary or Head Start Schools with their daily curriculum, serving as tutors/mentors, offering guidance and loving care to children. Foster Grandparents receive a tax free stipend and reimbursement for transportation and meal costs. If you are interested in participating as a Foster Grandparent this school year please contact Delilah Coss at 575-887-3939.
